REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR PRESIDENT,
Abraham Lincoln,
of Illinois.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
Hannibal Hamlin,
of Maine.

Value and Usefulness of Railroads.

Mr. Miller, in his late Report Survey, exemplifies the value and usefulness of Railroads as follows:

"In 1857 I was engaged on the Georgia State Railroad, just then commenced. I there became acquainted with the people along the road, their habits and their means. Beyond their actual wants of food, they raised nothing at all. The men moped around, and shot at a mark; the women seemed to do but little; whilst their children, poorly cared for, roamed about from place to place as if their largest thoughts were but on catching rabbits and small game. What was the use of working, when it would cost them two dollars per bushel to get their wheat to market, and then get only one?"

"In 1857 I went back again, and what a change! The rivers were the same—the Kennesaw Mountain had not changed—the Crooked Spoon still rolled along—the men and women that once I knew were there—the boys had grown men, and the girls to women; but their men had changed. The old men stood crooked as with conscious pride they looked upon the waving fields of grain. The matrons busied themselves about their dairies and their looms; whilst the sturdy boys were grappling with the plough."

"What had brought this change about? Listen for a while, and soon you will hear the Iron Horse coming snorting along. He stops at a station for fuel and water—a man gets off the train. He is a Charlestown man, or perhaps the Agent of the Montgomery Mills. The cars go on, and he goes on to the house. He meets the farmer—they have met before. His business is to buy grain. Strange, but true, that the demand for wheat should be so great as to induce the merchant to buy at the farmer's door. He offers one dollar and a half per bushel, cash, for the entire crop and furnishes the sacks to put it in. That won't do. Savannah was here yesterday, and Columbus the day before, and they offered more. Here is the key to this great mystery. The great State Road—the Iron Horse—the dollar and a half per bushel, cash, tells the tale. This is literally true, as any one can ascertain by enquiring of the man that knows."

Tip up your Paddle!

The annexed curious paragraph attracts our attention in an exchange.

"The negro man whom we mentioned in our last as having murdered an old negro woman, in this District, was tried on Wednesday last by a Magistrate's court, and sentenced to receive two hundred paddles and be banished from the State."

What does it mean? Were the paddles intended to typify that it was all O'er with him? Yet that could not be, for he was sentenced to naturally suggest itself as the most appropriate way. If killing a negro woman obtains for the murderer a presentation of paddles, we wonder what crime in the catalogue would entitle him to a cance—Vanity Fair.

Equibobs, drawing upon his legal resources, would suggest in a conciliatory spirit to the editors of Vanity Fair, that bigamists would accomplish the desired object, since it is an illegitimate extension of concubinal felicity, and generally ends in a row!

MILANONI HILL, June 4, 1860.

DEAR HAMMOND—I saw for the first time to-day, in print, my letter dated St. Louis, May 19th, in which I am made to say—"We who were threatened with the same dangerous element, (radicalism) of course hoped the conservative position was to be abandoned." Whereas, I do say—"Of course hoped, if the conservative position was to be abandoned, for the nomination of some recognised leader."

Acting upon that "hope," I voted on the first ballot for Judge Rapp, of Pennsylvania, on the second for your candidate, SALMON P. CHASE, of Ohio, and on the third, when I was satisfied that the choice lay between you and Lincoln, for WILLIAM H. SEWARD, of New York.

Though the result was not so gratifying to us as a Conservative movement under the lead of Reed,—or the nomination of Seward on the ground of eminent fitness, and his mature and commanding statesmanship, yet I heartily rejoice that it has so entirely harmonized our party in this State.

Yours Chicago Correspondent.

It is stated that Dr. O. W. Holmes delivered an address before the Massachusetts Medical Society last Wednesday, in which he declared, in plain language, that mankind had been drugged to death; that whatever would injure a well man would injure a sick one; and that the world would be safe if the contents of every apothecary shop were emptied into the sea, though the consequences to the fishes would be lamentable. A long discussion was held on the propriety of publishing the address, though it was finally voted by the small majority of nine to give it to the public, but with a notification on the first page that the Society were not responsible for the sentiments it contained.

A letter from St. John's, Newfoundland, of the 23d ult., says: "We have nothing but a continuation of easterly winds and rains during the past six weeks, hardly varied by any days of fine weather. The fish (cod) have struck in pretty freely, and herrings are plenty in Conception Bay. Whooping cough is very prevalent here at this time, and numbers of children are dying from its effects. I have just heard of a new disease which attacks the little ones, called 'paralysis of the spine,' which proves fatal in almost all cases in a brief period after attack."

Some time ago, Mr. A. Cuthbert, of Georgia, son of a former United States Senator from that State, emancipated all his slaves, seventy-five in number. He has recently purchased and settled upon a farm lying near the Paterson and Hamburg turnpike, about four miles from the former place. Mr. C. has brought five of his former "chattels" with him, after giving them their liberty; the others have been sent to Liberia.

At Montreal, C., a few days ago, Mrs. Millard, wife of Mr. Robert Millard of Poughkeepsie, was in one of the principal streets of the city, when an infuriated bull rushed at her and caught her on his horns, threw her up, caught her again, and she fell, under the feet of the horse. She was taken up, insensible, much bruised and cut, but her injuries will not prove fatal.

William Gil, a cab driver in New Orleans, while on his seat driving, was shot and instantly killed on the evening of the 28th ult.

During our visit to Lowell we were shown through the Laboratory of our celebrated countryman, Dr. J. C. ATKIN. Scarcely could we have believed what is seen there without proof of disputing.

What a scene and thousands of acres of sick beds does this spread before the imagination! And what sympathies and woe! True not all this is taken by the very sick, but alas, much of it is. This Cherry Drop and this sugared Pill are to be the companion of pain and anguish and sinking sorrow—the inheritance our mother Eve bequeathed to the whole family of man. Here the infant darling has been touched too early by the blight that withers half our race. Its little lungs are affected and only watching and waiting shall tell which way its breath shall turn. This red drop on its table is the talisman on which its life shall hang. There the blossom of the world just bursting into womanhood, is striken also. Affection's most assiduous care avails not, she is still fading away. The wan messenger comes nearer and nearer every week. This little medicine shall go there, their last, perhaps their only hope. The strong man has planted in his vitals, this same disease. This red drop by his side is helping him wrestle with the inexorable enemy; the wife of his bosom and the cherubs of his heart are waiting in sick sorrow and fear lest the rod on which they lean in this world be broken.

O Doctor! Spare no skill, nor cost, nor toil, to give the perishing sick the best that human art can give.—Galveston, Texas, News.

The amount of property invested in literary institutions by the Protestant Episcopal Methodist Church is over $5,000,000.

Mr. Ensign Eldridge, a man who recently died in Charlestown, Mass., had lived without food for 77 days previous to his death, it is said.

Noah F. Bishop, of Groveland, Mass., arrested recently for having four wives living, has been sentenced, at the present term of the Superior Court for Essex county, to 6 years confinement in the State Prison.

Charles McHugh, a hand on board the steamer Moro, at New Orleans, was murdered a few days ago, by another hand on board the same boat, named Denis O'Brien. The murderer made his escape.

The Legislature of Connecticut on the 1st inst., passed a bill appropriating $25,000, and authorized the Governor to appoint three Commissioners with certain powers to suppress and prevent the cattle disease in Connecticut.

A German at New Orleans committed suicide because he could not attend the Volksfest which he had been looking forward to with great anticipations for a long time. He saw his companions decking themselves in their best attire to attend, and could not endure the idea of missing the festival.

The clipper barque Casab arrived at Boston on Saturday, and brought 10 passengers.

A JOURNEY UNDER PARIS.—A correspondent of a Swedish journal furnishes an interesting account of a subterranean voyage made through one of the admirably constructed sewers of Paris. The boat which conveyed the party was reached by descending a flight of steps to the depth of about forty-five feet. The boat, a flat-bottomed affair, was lighted by four lamps. The sewer is an archway, fifteen feet high, and of equal breadth, with a ditch or canal about ten feet wide, wherein all the dirt and filth of Paris is carried away. On the sides are sidewalks, which together are about four feet wide. The whole is built of beautiful white sandstone, and is kept remarkably neat and clean. No stench or bad smell was perceptible. The denser portion of the filth is carried away through large drains beneath the sidewalks. The sidewalks are excellent, and exhibited no signs of dampness, while the walls of the archway are kept whitewashed, and are at all times as white as the driven snow. The structure possesses the qualities of an immense speaking-tube, the workmen being able to converse at the distance of two miles from each other. The echo is very strong and lasting. The fabric is said to be built after a model of the catacombs of Rome, aided by all the latest improvements. On both sides, at about two hundred yards distance from one another, are openings through which the workmen can ascend by means of permanent iron ladders, in case of sudden rain storm should cause the water to rise over the sidewalks, which is, however, rare occurrence.

WEARNESS I.—The patient, trembling with Lassitude and Weakness after a slight exertion, by the use of a bottle or two of this very popular health maker, becomes imbued with new strength and increased energy! as it gives new life and action to the blood, and increases the appetite, on which strength receives its origin and depends.

NERVOUSNESS.—Wenches with over exertion, is generally the origin of this horrid-depicting disease. Use Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters, and you will be rendered perfectly self-possessed, calm and potent.
